PASTORS REPORT

Dear Parishioners:

I would like to congratulate our five newly ordained priests. They are: Frs. Max Carson, Jacob Epstein, Reed Flood, Brade Robey, and Nick Stark. Three of them have been a part of our communities over the last three years, Fr. Max Carson spent the summer of 2018 with us-going on our local mission trip, Fr. Reed Flood was with us in the summer of 2019-spending time with our youth in El Paso, Texas, and Fr. Nick Stark did a month-long internship with the St. Paul Seminary during the month of January 2018. We are grateful that they have said, 'YES' to God's call and service of God and the people of God! Fr. Max Carson will be assigned as parochial vicar at St. Patrick's, Council Bluffs and chaplain of St. Albert Catholic School. Fr. Reed Flood will be helping at the St. Thomas More Catholic Youth Center with summer camp Masses and then continuing further studies in Rome as a priest student. Fr. Nick Stark will be assigned as parochial vicar of Christ the King Parish. Fr. Jacob Epstein will be assigned as parochial vicar of Corpus Christi Parish in Council Bluffs, Iowa. and Fr. Brad Robey will be assigned as parochial vicar of St. Pius X Parish, Urbandale, Iowa. In case you missed it last week, Bishop William M. Joensen has reinstated the Sunday Mass obligation as of July 25. This would be a great time of encouraging and taking someone to Mass who has been away from the church for a time. I would challenge all of us to be that welcoming, hospitable community for those who have been inactive or alienated from St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic Parish Community and Immaculate Conception, St. Mary's parish community. All it takes is an invitation! This comes at the time of the Bread of Life Discourses, the Eucharist, which is the source and summit of our faith. It is Jesus who feeds us with His body, blood, soul, and divinity in the Eucharistic Sacrifice of the Mass! What a Sacrament! What a grace this is for us to help us to live a life in Him in true freedom and faith!

Blessings and peace to you all!

Fr. Chris

From The office of the Bishop:
